

Judge Lewis.

Gen. Lewis arrived in Louisville yesterday on his way to Frankfort after an extensive tour of the western part of the State in advocacy of his nomination for Governor.

"I am most strongly in favor of the Legislature being convened in extra session for the sole purpose of modifying our present election law," said Gen. Lewis to a Courier-Journal reporter.

"It is not for me now to state what modification or amendments of the law should be adopted, but there is an absolute necessity for it to be amended as to recommend it as a whole to the best-thinking people of the State. There is a prevalent opinion in the State that elections under its provisions are not conducted fairly—that it is too partisan. Whether this be true or not, it is a matter of no inconsiderable belief and does not reflect credit on our commonwealth. I, therefore, say call an extra session of the Legislature and modify the law so as to remove the feeling of distrust.

"I urge this for the Democratic party's sake, if nothing else. I have only met with one man who was not in favor of amending the law, and as to the coming gubernatorial election, from my observations I have inferred only one opinion—amend the election law at once, and nominate the man, who, ever he may be, who can poll the largest number of votes. In this way you can reunite the party. We must also bear in mind that this is the presidential year, and if Kentucky should be the pivotal State we should remove any possibility of the Republicans robbing us of our votes on account of the present law."

"Will you express an opinion on the recent legal suggestion that Gov. Beckham's term of office does not expire until 1903?"

"It is unseasonable to discuss it. The constitutional history of the State is against it, and the genius of our law is that the people should have the power to fill vacancies in offices when the unexpired term comes within a certain named period. But, aside from this, any discussion of the question is to the highest degree unwise. The courts have not now the time to settle the question, if one did exist, and we are certain of one fact, that the Republicans will vote for their ticket. If, however, an attempt is made by Democrats to create the belief that no gubernatorial election is necessary this year, the tendency will be to keep them away from the polls."

"How do you regard your prospects?"

"I have not been over much of the State, but I feel very much encouraged."

Gen. Lewis said he would leave for Frankfort this morning, but did not know what section of the State he would then visit.—Courier-Journal.

Stung by a Centipede.

Mrs. Thos. Saunders, Bluffton, Tex., was stung by a centipede. A doctor was sent for, but before he arrived the sensible friend wet a piece of brown paper with Morley's Wonderful Balm and applied it to the wound. The doctor said his services were not needed, for the poison was neutralized or killed by the Wonderful Balm. Mrs. S. did not suffer from the wound. Free trial bottles at W. M. Bell, Jopka Ky.

At Grandview, Ind., Theodore Gunsald, a negro, was chased by a mob and badly wounded for making a remark derogatory of the white women of Grandview. The negro was finally brought across the river in Kentucky by an officer to save him from the mob.

County Convention Called.

At a meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee held in Frankfort, Ky., May 20, it was ordered that on Saturday, July 14, 1900, at 2 p. m., standard time there shall be held in each of the voting precincts of all the counties of the State at the usual voting places, a precinct convention for the purpose of appointing delegates to the county convention to be held at the Court House, Monday, July 16, at 2 p. m., which county convention shall in turn appoint delegates to a State Convention to be held in Lexington, Ky., on Thursday, July 19, 1900, for the purpose of nominating a Democratic candidate for Governor.

The basis of representation for precinct delegates shall be one for each fifty votes, and fraction over twenty-five cast for Bryan Electors in 1896. The basis of representation for county delegates shall be one delegate for each two hundred votes, and fraction over one hundred cast for the head of the Democratic electoral ticket at the Presidential election in 1896.

All persons who will be legal voters in the State next November who are devoted to the principles of the Democratic party, and desire to those principles to succeed, who by participating in the district and county convention will feel in honor bound to support the nominee of the Democratic party for Governor, are hereby invited to participate in said meetings.

IS IT RIGHT

For an Editor to Recommend Patent Medicines?

From Sylvan Valley News, Brevard, N. C.

It may be a question whether the editor of a newspaper has the right to publicly recommend any of the various proprietary medicines which flood the market, yet as a preventive of suffering we feel it a duty to say a good word for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. We have known and used this medicine in our family for twenty years and have always found it reliable. In many cases a dose of this remedy would save hours of suffering while a physician is awaited. We do not believe in depending implicitly on any medicine for a cure, but we do believe that if a bottle of Chamberlain's Diarrhoea Remedy were kept on hand and administered at the inception of an attack much suffering might be avoided and in very many cases the presence of a physician would not be required. At least this has been our experience during the past twenty years. For sale by M. Cravens.

OUR GLORIOUS COUNTRY.

Have you watched its marvelous growth? If not, The Weekly Enquirer wants to study the strides it has made. The first census of the United States was taken in 1790. Since then every succeeding ten years. The result has been as follows:

Year.	Population.	Year.	Population.
1810.....	7,239,881	1860.....	31,443,321
1820.....	9,633,822	1870.....	38,558,371
1830.....	12,866,020	1880.....	50,155,783
1840.....	17,069,453	1890.....	63,822,250
1850.....	23,191,876

Here you have the figures of a basis of calculation. The problem now is: What will be the population of the United States, excluding recent acquisitions. The result is usually announced in July of the census year.

THE WEEKLY ENQUIRER is anxious to engage all in a study of their country. To this end it will distribute cash amounting to $25,000, for solutions received of the population of the United States Census, as follows:

To the first nearest correct guess received.	$2,000.00
To the second.....	1,500.00
To the third.....	750.00
To the fourth.....	500.00
To the fifth.....	250.00
To the sixth.....	200.00
To the seventh.....	150.00
To the next 10, each $100, amounting to.	1,000.00
To the next 100, each $50, amounting to.	2,500.00
To the next 100, each $25, amounting to.	2,500.00
To the next 500, each $10, amounting to.	5,000.00
To the next 1,000, each $5, amounting to.	7,500.00
2197 cash presents amounting to	$25,000.00

In case of a tie, money equally divided.

Every guess on the above proposition must be accompanied by a year's subscription to the WEEKLY ENQUIRER. You can guess as often as you care to inclose subscription price to the WEEKLY ENQUIRER.

This contest will close a month before the result of the census will be known and officially certified by the Director of the United States Census at Washington, D. C.

Subscription price for the WEEKLY ENQUIRER (including guess) is only $1.00 a year. Eleven copies and eleven guesses for $10.00. For full particulars see WEEKLY ENQUIRER. Send all orders to ENQUIRER Co., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Terrible Scenes in China.

Li Hung Chang Recognizes the Danger.

Will do His Best to Avert Anarchy Threatened By Boxers.

SOUTHERN CHINA IS MUCH AGITATED

LONDON, June 27.—The Daily Telegraph publishes this dispatch from its special correspondent:

CANTON, June 25 (via Hongkong, June 26).—It is feared that we are on the eve of a scene of bloodshed and anarchy in the two Quangs only paralleled in history by the Tai Ping rebellion. The signs of a murderous uprising by the Boxers, pirates and other bloodthirsty wretches with nothing but their worthless lives to lose and everything to gain by assassination and pillage have become so manifest that wealthy Chinese are hurrying away from its vicinity, taking with them their wives, families and valuables.

Viceroy Li Hung Chang has again been peremptorily ordered to go to Peking. His enemies declare they will murder him before he can reach there.

His presence alone restrains the revolutionary elements here. His departure will let loose the "Black Flags" and "Red Girdles." Knowing this, Li's trusted officers are sending their families to Hong-kong.

The Viceroy trusts Americans in this crisis. He says that they alone want no accession of territory, and he places himself largely, almost unreservedly, in their hands.

At a most important conference held to-day he reiterated that sentiment, adding an expression of his determination at all hazards to secure the best results for China and the maintenance of most friendly relations with England, America and other foreign nations.

Almost all the missionaries have been notified of the imminent peril in which they stand through the medium of confidential runners and spies. They are leaving Canton hurriedly, few now remaining here.

Commander McLean, of the United States gunboat San Juan de Austria, was first here to protect foreign interests. He is a capable and an energetic officer. His ship has now been re-enforced by the arrival of the British warship Redpole, under commander Corbet.
